The Grand Prize must be accepted as offered. It may not be sold, transferred or monetized, and it will not be reimbursed if not used. No substitution, modification, or extension is permitted. The Contest Sponsor reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to replace the Grand Prize with another prize of equal or greater value or to authorize its transfer.

4. Draw

One (1) draw will take place on Monday, July 27, 2026, at 3 p.m. from among all eligible entries received between Thursday June 26 at 10 a.m. and Sunday, July 19, 2026, at 5 p.m. The Grand Prize winner will be contacted by email or telephone and informed about how to claim their prize.

The draw will take place at the MMFA. As of August 3, the Grand Prize winner's name may be obtained by writing to musee@mbamtl.org.

5. Eligibility

This Contest is open exclusively to legal residents of Quebec who are 18 years of age and older, with the exception of employees, representatives or agents of the MMFA and its affiliates, its promotional or advertising agencies and suppliers of products and services related to the promotion of this Contest, as well as any persons who reside with them.

6. General Conditions

The Grand Prize winner will be chosen by random draw. This person will be contacted by email or telephone at the contact information provided on the entry form, in the seven (7) business days following the date of the draw. Should the selected entrant be unreachable by email or phone, or if this person fails to return the call or email within a period of seven (7) business days from the time they were initially contacted, or is found to be ineligible, they will be disqualified from the Contest and be considered to have forfeited the Grand Prize. The MMFA may then, at its sole discretion, select an alternate winner by random draw.

Before being declared the winner, the person selected for the Grand Prize and their travel companion will be required to sign a declaration and return it by the specified deadline. In this declaration, these parties shall:

- a) Confirm that they have complied with the Contest rules and that they accept the prize as awarded;
- b) Acknowledge that the MMFA, Air Canada and their respective affiliates, promotional and advertising agencies, suppliers of products and services associated with this promotion and representatives are not liable for any incident arising in any way whatsoever from the use of the prize;
- c) Acknowledge that the MMFA, Air Canada and their respective representatives are entitled to use their photos, names and addresses with no compensation other than the prize.

The Grand Prize winner must correctly answer the following mathematical skill-testing question: $(25 \times 4) + (50 - 10) =$

The MMFA is not responsible for Contest entries that are improperly filled out or wrongly submitted. The odds of winning depend on the number of entries received. Correspondence will be exchanged with the prize winners only.

Any dispute arising from the organization or conduct of a promotional Contest may be submitted to the Régie des alcools, des courses et des jeux for settlement. Disputes arising from the awarding of a prize may be submitted to the Régie only for the purpose of an intervention in an attempt to settle it. This Contest is subject to all applicable federal, provincial and municipal laws.

The Contest rules are available upon request from the MMFA and on its website.

7. Use of Personal Data

Any personal information that an entrant provides when registering for the Contest shall be used only for the purpose of communication related to the administration of this Contest. Entrants must ensure that this information is accurate and complete at the time of entering the Contest. To learn more about how the MMFA protects the personal information that it collects, consult the Policy on the Protection of Personal Information of the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts.
